ORDER

JED S. RAKOFF, U.S.D.J.

This Court previously noted that it had received a letter from defendant Sayoc that purported to clarify statements he made during his guilty plea colloquy. The Court asked the parties to indicate in writing by April 9, 2019 whether they believed it necessary to take further action.

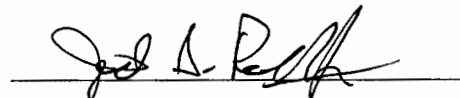

The Court is now in receipt of a second letter from defendant Sayoc, dated April 1, 2019, in which he states that he was under extreme stress at the time of his guilty plea and that certain answers he gave - relating mainly to his subjective understanding of the risks posed by his actions - were inaccurate. The Court still wishes to receive written submissions from the parties, addressing both this and the previous letter, and the deadline for those submissions is extended to April 12, 2019.

Additionally, the Court finds it necessary to hold an in-person hearing to address these issues. The parties are therefore directed to appear on April 15, 2019 at 2:00pm.

The Clerk of the Court is respectfully directed to docket defendant's letter along with this Order.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: New York, NY

Your Honor Ted S. Rakoff:

Cesar Altieri Sauc Jr. 03/17/1962 on March 21, 2019 at 4:00 p.m. I appeared in front of yourself at a Plea Hearing. Your Honor I was not in right state of mind. I was over whelmed, High anxiety, very nervous condition, I froze causing myself to not respond correctly.

As you could tell from my responses transcripts minutes 19 to 25 on page 20, I viewed the transcript, which is included & noted.

①9 The Court: Well what would prevent for example powder from fireworks from exploding?

The Correct Response:

I reviewed the transcript minutes I was freaked out over whelmed nervous with anxiety.

The devices would never explode or worked. The fireworks were sparklers type. I clearly did not understand the question & can't believe my responses, as you can clearly see Your Honor minutes 19-25 Page 20

1 prove every essential element of each of these 65 counts beyond
2 a reasonable doubt?

3 MR. BOVE: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Does defense counsel know of any valid
5 defense that would likely prevail at trial or any other reason
6 why her client should not plead guilty?

7 MS. GALLICCHIO: No, your Honor.

I WAS SO NERVOUS FREAKED OUT Broke down Cried

8 THE COURT: Mr. Sayoc, tell me in your own words what 9 it is that you did that makes you guilty of these crimes.

THIS IS THE PAPER MY ATTORNEY WROTE MYSELF.

10 THE DEFENDANT: In October 2018, I made device that 11 were designed to look like pipe bombs and sent them through the 12 U.S. mail. I sent a total 16 devices to people around the 13 country. I mailed them from South Florida to George Soroş,
14 Hillary Clinton, John Brennan, Robert DeNiro, James Clapper,
15 Barack Obama, Maxine Waters, Eric Holder, Joe Biden, Cory
16 Booker, Kamala Harris, Thomas Steyer, and CNN.

17 I sent all of the 16 devices with the intent to 18 threaten and intimidate people and with the intent to injure
19 property.

20 The devices consisted of a plastic pipe with a digital
21 alarm clock and wires attached to it. Inside the plastic pipe
22 was powder from fireworks, fertilizer, pool shock and some
23 glass fragments. I also put pictures of the recipients with a
24 red 'X' over their faces inside the package.

25 THE COURT: All right. Is there anything else

J3LAASAYP

Plea

1 regarding the factual portion of the allocution that the
2 government wishes the Court to inquire about?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

4 MR. BOVE: Couple of issues, judge.

5 First, with respect to Counts One through 16, the
6 weapons of mass destruction offenses, we ask that the Court
7 inquire whether the defendant intended the devices that he just
8 described to be used as weapons which is a component of a
9 definition of "destructive device" which folds up into the 10 definition of "WMD". That's the first request we question.

11 THE COURT: OK. You heard the government's question?

12 MS. BAUMGARTEL: Your Honor, if I may briefly? I
13 believe that the allocution we've submitted had addressed had 14 in the sense that he described that they were designed and 15 intended to look like pipe bombs and then described the 16 components that were --

17 THE COURT: Do you have a copy of what he was just 18 reading from?

19 MS. BAUMGARTEL: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Would you hand it up?

21 (Pause)

22 THE COURT: So, Counts One through 16 charge him with 23 knowingly using, attempting to use or threatening to use a
24 destructive device as defined in Title 18 U.S.C. 921,
25 specifically, improvised, explosive devices sent through the

J3LAASAYP

Plea

1 U.S. mail.

2 Now, the defendant just said in the first sentence of
3 his statement:

4 "In October 2018, I made devices that were designed to
5 look like pipe bombs and sent them through the U.S. mail".

6 So, is the question whether these were in fact devices
7 that could have exploded?

8 MR. BOVE: So there are two parts to the definition of 9 destructive device that your Honor cited in Section 921. The 10 first is capable of exploding. And I think that the 11 defendant's allocution has covered that in that he described 12 packing explosive powder into the pipe which in turn was
13 capable of exploding.

14 There's a second component of the destructive device
15 definition and I'm reading now:

16 "The term "destructive device" shall not include any
17 device that is neither designed, nor redesigned for use as a
18 weapon".

19 ~~And I don't think there's some delta between designing~~
20 something to look like a weapon which is my understanding of 21 what the allocution has reached so far and the statutory
22 definition of "design or use as a weapon". And it's a
23 distinction that I think bears very much on the defendant's
24 intent.

25 MS. BAUMGARTEL: Your Honor, in order to meet the

J3LAASAYP

Plea

1 elements of the statute Mr. Sayoc simply has to have threatened
2 to use a destructive device. Whether or not that item was.
3 actually a destructive device, is not an element. So, for
4 example, there is pretty clear --

5 THE COURT: Well, no --. Forgive me for interrupting.
6 He said the following in the later part of his allocution:

7 The devices consisted of a plastic pipe with a digital
8 alarm clock and wires attached to it. Inside the plastic pipe
9 was powder from fireworks, fertilizer, pool shock and some
10 glass fragments.

11 I also put pictures of the recipients with the red
12 'X's over their faces inside the package.

13 Let's start first, Mr. Sayoc. You clearly intended
14 that these would be use viewed as explosive devices, yes?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, just viewed.

16 THE COURT: All right. Did you intend that they would 17 in fact explode?

18 THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

19 THE COURT: Well, what would prevent, for example
20 powder from fireworks from exploding?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Sir, I was aware of the risk.

22 THE COURT: I'm sorry. You've got to speak a little
23 louder, sir.

24 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sorry. I was aware of the risk
25 that it would explode.

1 THE COURT: Well, let me ask the government, is there
2 another question in this regard that you want to put to the 3 defendant?

4 MR. BOVE: No, your Honor. I think that the
5 defendant's admission just now that he was aware that they were
6 capable of exploding.

7 THE COURT: OK. Very good.

8 MR. BOVE: There's a second issue, judge.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 MR. BOVE: And this bears on the intent element with 11 respect to Counts 17 through 32, interstate transportation of 12 explosives, as well as the Counts 49 through 64, illegal
13 mailing of explosives. And we ask that the Court inquire of 14 the defendant whether he intended that these mailings would be
15 used to kill or injure another?

16 MS. BAUMGARTEL: Your Honor, the element included
17 injure property, which he said.

18 THE COURT: So sounds to me like I'm already hearing
19 the arguments I am going to hear at sentence.

20 So, you did intend that there would be potential
21 injury to property, yes?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

23 THE COURT: OK. Did you know there was a risk that
24 there would be injury to persons?

MS. GALLICCHIO: No, your Honor, not from us.

MR. BOVE: No, your Honor. Thank you.

THE COURT: You mentioned each of the individuals and to move this along I'll just repeat what your statement was in that regard.

I sent a total of 16 devices to people around the country. I mailed them from South Florida to George Soros, Hillary Clinton John Brennan, Robert DeNiro, James Clapper, Barack Obama, Maxine Waters, Eric Holder, Joe Biden, Cory Booker, Kamala Harris, Thomas Steyer, and CNN.

I think under those circumstances we don't need to go count by count, but I think we do need to go by group.

So first, with respect to the first 16 counts which
